Kate Hansen

Kate Hansen is a corporate attorney with a varied background in business and litigation. Kate began her career clerking for a United States District Court Judge for the District of Utah and then working for a regional law firm based in the intermountain west where she represented receivers appointed in civil enforcement actions brought by the Securities and Exchange Commission and various businesses in litigation matters.

Since that time Kate has been heavily involved in handling corporate transactions and contracts of all types and sizes, including acquisitions and sales of businesses in the software and communications industries, debt and equity financings for various clients and corporate structuring and leasing. Kate has also worked as in-house general counsel of a national firm providing fractional CFO services to clients.

Her experience is not limited solely to legal matters as Kate also recently and successfully crowdfunded and launched her own ecommerce consumer products company.

Kate uses her diverse experience to help clients' businesses to thrive through mergers and acquisitions, contract drafting and negotiations, corporate compliance, and other general business matters.
